

In the best interest of amateur radio, and to insure the future growth of amateur radio, I believe it is important to eliminate the requirement of morse code to get a license. I am licensed to operate on the HF marine freqs, and NO test at all was or is required. Please end this antiquated requirement.